ENROLLMENT CONTRACT 2018-2019 SCHOOL YEAR

We agree to enroll our child _____, at Saint Albans School for the Academic Year 2018-2019. The tuition and fees payable for the year is $15,500.00.

We understand that students are enrolled for the entire school year and that tuition is payable for the entire year. We understand that there are no deductions, credits or refunds for early withdrawal, absences, or vacations. We further understand that this is not an option contract, and that tuition is due and payable regardless of whether we ultimately send our children to another school either before or after the scheduled start of the term. We further agree that the amount of the contract price shall be construed as liquidated damages and is not a penalty clause.

We understand that the school reserves the right to remove any student who, in its absolute discretion, proves to be disruptive, dangerous, or whose conduct otherwise impairs the functioning of the school or interferes with other students' ability to learn or participate in school activities. In such a case, the decision of the school shall be final, and there shall be no grounds for asserting any claim against the school as a result of the exercise of its discretion.

In case of illness, accident, or injury, we further give the school permission to administer first aid and, if necessary, take our children to the nearest available emergency room for treatment. We agree that in such case, we are responsible for the costs of all medical treatment rendered by medical professionals on our children's behalf. We understand that the school will make every reasonable effort to notify us in the event of any injury or illness to our child.

We agree that no suit in law or equity may be commenced against the school, the church, or any member of staff, or any volunteer, for any injuries sustained by our children in or about the premises of Saint Albans School, the First Reformed Episcopal Church, or in connection with any field trip or excursion.

We also agree that the school may use pictures of our children on its website or admissions or publications materials without compensation.

We further agree that the school will be entitled to all legal fees and costs of collection incurred as a result of any attempt to enforce this agreement without right of set-off or counterclaim.

Finally, we agree that this writing constitutes the full and final agreement of the parties hereto and that no other promises, contracts, covenants, or warranties have been made with respect to this agreement.
